THE ROYAL AGRICULTURAL BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION

Patron—
H.M. THE KING

Vice-Patron—
H.R.H. PRINCE OF WALES, K.G.

Warmly supported by many Bishops and Prominent Clergy and Laymen

Grants annuities to destitute aged farmers, their wives, widows, and unmarried orphan daughters, who are the sole beneficiaries. They are accepted as applicants subject to certain qualifications and elected by the votes of contributors. Since the foundation of the Institution in 1860 over

£1,120,900

has been distributed, and more than 6,500

pensioners have been relieved. Annual pension charges now exceed

£26,000

Church Collections are always welcomed but Harvest Offertories are especially opportune, as helping to foster sympathy between the consumers of agricultural produce and those who cultivate the land for their benefit.

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF BENEFICES

Note.—An attempt has been made to simplify reference to this list, by inserting the names of the benefices in their natural order. Thus the Vicarage of St. Saviour's, Aberdeen Park, N. will be found under "A," rather than under Islington, of which parish it forms a part. It is hoped that this may be useful. For information as to the value of the benefice, population, etc., see List of Clergy in Part II.

ENGLISH CHURCH UNION

THE ENGLISH CHURCH UNION still maintains the unique position which it has occupied for upwards of seventy years in the Catholic Movement. It devotes its enormous resources to the steadfast defence of Catholic Doctrine and Discipline, and persists in upholding the claim of the Church of England to be an integral part of the whole Catholic Church of Christ.

It has devoted itself, through its Literature Committee, to the production of literature in all branches of Theology and Ethics, including the admirable Catholic Commentary on the whole Bible (S.P.C.K., Second Edition, one vol., 16s.; Old Testament and Apocrypha, 10s.; New Testament, 10s.; Apocrypha only, 5s.) and the second edition of "The Catechism of Catholic Faith and Practice" (S.P.C.K., 2d.)

The Union, through its Legal Committee and by means of its great financial resources, is able to afford counsel, protection, and assistance to all persons, lay or clerical, who may be oppressed in any spiritual matter.

In all its activities the Union seeks to co-operate with all other Catholic Societies, and looks forward hopefully to the day when all such Societies may be united and work together under one leadership for the support of Catholic Principles and Practice.

Conditions of Membership: Membership is open to all members of the Church of England and of Churches in Communion with her who are communicants, and the minimum subscriptions are as follows: Full Members, 10s. a year; Associates, 2s. 6d.; and Adherents, 1s.

The Church Union Gazette is sent free each month to all Members and Associates. To the general public the price is 2s. per annum, post free.

31 Russell Square, W.C.1.

ARNOLD PINCHARD, Secretary.

THE CREMATION SOCIETY.

Founded in 1874 by the late Sir Henry Thompson. Incorporated in 1922 under the Companies Act as a body limited by guarantee, without a share capital and not conducted for profit.

President :

HIS GRACE THE DUKE OF BEDFORD, K.G.

Vice-Presidents :

RT. REV. CHARLES GORE, D.D., LADY HELENA GLEICHEN, SIR P. CHALMERS MITCHELL, C.B.E., F.R.S., SIR HERBERT THOMPSON, BT., D.LITT., SIR THOMAS HORDER, M.B., F.R.C.P., PROF. A BOSTOCK HILL, LORD FARRER, SIR HENRY COWAN, MRS. ALEC TWEEDIE, J. C. SWINBURNE-HANHAM, J.P., W. ROBINSON, F.L.S.

¶ CREMATION is the most sanitary form of burial, and one that does not shock the sense of reverence. Purification by fire is a beautiful idea. Many Church dignitaries have chosen it for the disposal of their earthly remains, and it is prescribed as a precedent to burial in Westminster Abbey and St. Paul's Cathedral.

¶ The general adoption of cremation would also facilitate a return to the ancient custom of parochial Church Burial, and those who are interested to know how this would benefit the Church are invited to apply for pamphlet "Cremation and its Relationship to the Church," which will be sent post free, together with a booklet giving full information as to the arrangements, charges and procedure adopted at the Crematoria established at Woking, Golders Green, Birmingham, Manchester, Bradford, Leeds, Hull, Liverpool, Darlington, Sheffield, Ipswich, Ilford, Bristol, Brighton, Nottingham, Pontypridd, Glasgow, Edinburgh, Guernsey and elsewhere.

¶ The following observations on this subject were made by the Bishop of Rochester in 1913, in his charge to the clergy of his diocese :—

"The rule which excludes from Westminster Abbey all interments but those of cremated ashes indicates that our cathedrals and our churches may, like our closed churchyards, once more become the resting-place of our sacred dead under the very Shadow of the Church."

The ashes of H.R.H. the late Duchess of Connaught, the Bishop of Truro, the Bishop of Lincoln, the Bishop of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich, the Bishop of Worcester, Bishop Boyd Carpenter, Archdeacons Aglan, Tribe, Wilberforce and Watkins, Canons Burnett, Coward and Duckworth, the Dean of Norwich, Holman Hunt, Sir Henry Irving, Dame Ellen Terry, Rt. Hon. Mr. Bonar Law, Lord Ypres, and many other distinguished persons were interred in church precincts after cremation.

¶ The Council invite applications for free Registration of Members. A single payment of five guineas or six annual subscriptions of £1 1s. qualifies as a Life Member, and includes cremation at death. Full information forwarded post free on application to the Secretary :

85 Beds. 5,000 Patients treated per annum. Annual Expenditure £12,000.

THE HOSPITAL IS PRACTICALLY WITHOUT ENDOWMENT

The Committee suggest the Hospital as a worthy Legatee (Residuary).

The Hospital is a Model Institution rebuilt in 1903-13—mainly by the means of Legacies of generous benefactors.

The Committee accept the responsibility of their office with faith that testators may provide thousands of pounds annually towards the treatment of pitiable sufferers from Epilepsy, Hemiplegia, Creeping Palsy, Infantile Paralysis, Neuritis, Neurasthenia, Cerebral Tumour, General Paralysis and a hundred other disorders of the Nervous System.

H. W. BURLEIGH, Secretary.

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY

(School of Divinity in the University of London.)

Dean—Rev. Canon W. R. Matthews, M.A., D.D.

Theological Staff—Professors Matthews, Bicknell, Hooke, Jenkins, Oesterley, Rogers
Relton and Dearmer.

Lecturers—Bishop Gore, Dr. Bevan, Dr. Smith, Mr. Hanson, Dr. Hollis, Mr. Tasker.

THE Theological Department of King's College is a School of Theology in the University of London, and a place of preparation of Candidates for Holy Orders. Some of the Students read for the B.D. Degrees of the University and the Associateship of the College also, others for the Associateship alone. Nearly all the Bishops accept the Associateship as sufficient academic qualification. The usual course is for three years; evening study for three years can be substituted for the first two of the day-time course. There are 200 Day Students and 50 in the evening, besides upwards of 20 taking advanced work. Women students are admitted to the Theological Faculty to read for the B.D. or the Lambeth Diploma (S.Th.). Tutor to women students of Theology: Miss E. W. Hippisley, S.Th. The College possesses a Hostel for 75 Students and it is desirable, though not compulsory, that a part of the time should be spent in the Hostel.

For all information as to the Theological Department application should be made to the DEAN; and for the other Departments of the College to the SECRETARY, King's College, Strand, W.C.2.
